Good News for Sheep Farmers
The well-known Veterinary Surgeon
Mr Robert Hall, M.R.C.V.S
Inventor and Sole Manufacturer of the popular
HALL'S SHEEP DIP
Having determined to introduce this valuable Composition into general use in the Argentine Republic, has appointed Messrs Barnett & Co. his Agents for the River Plate.
This Dip is preferred to all others in Australia and New Zealand, where it has successfully stood a competitive trial for many years. The Inventor claims for this Dip the following advantages—
1st—It is instantly and completely soluble in either warm or cold water.
2nd—It is non poisonous in its effects on Wool or Sheep, and healing to all Sores on the Skin.
3rd—It is a certain preventive, and perfect cure for SCAB.
4th—It most effectually destroys Red Lice, Sheep Ticks, Maggots and every other kind of Parasite found on Sheep and Cattle.
5th—It is acknowledged by all who have used it, to be the best composition known for improving the quality and promoting the growth of the Wool.
6th—The Dip is invaluable for protecting the Sheep from the attacks of Flies and Maggots.
This Dip has been imported into this country by some large Sheepfarmers already, and used in preference to any other, for some years back; but it is only lately an Agent has been appointed.
Important
This Dip is guaranteed to be manufactured only by the Inventor in England, and is of course very superior to the many Dips made in this country.

LATEST FROM ENTRE RIOS

OFFICIAL.

Monte Caseros, June 7th.
To H.E, the President of the Republic.
I hasten to inform Y.E. that I have arrested Jose M. Godoy, the leader in the assassination of the two Englishmen in this department.
I found on him a watch and several other articles of jewellery which the widow of one of the victims identified, as also that Godoy was the man who killed her husband, as he had supper with them a few moments before the murder.
I have not rested a moment in unravelling this crime, in order to reassure the public and Y.E.'s Government.

ADIOS! 8 PER CENT. STOCKS.

The rise in the value of all our stocks in this market is the subject of so much criticism that one can easily perceive that the cheapening of money in Europe is beginning forcibly to tell on the Plate. Only a few years ago no stocks in this market were considered worth buying that did not give from 10 to 12 per cent. per annum: to-day people are satisfied if they get 8, and at the rate foreign capital is coming into this country soon there will be no more 8 per cent. stocks to be had in this market, except at high premiums.

Six per cent. per annum may now be regardod as the average value of money in this market, and the proposed scheme of Minister Uriburu to close the emission of 8 per cent. Cedulas shows clearly that the Provincial Government considers the present interest paid on these securities too high for the borrower, the investor and the Bank. Minister Uriburu's project has not yet been published, but its aim is to stop the further issue of 8 per cent. Cedulas, and to authorize the Mortgage Bank to create in its stead a new 6 per cent. series. Parties owing the Bank will be entitled to cancel their 8 per cent. mortgages and take 6 per cent.; but as this will necessitate a new mortgage, new stamp duties and 'escribania' expenses, it is improbable that the present mortgagors will incur such increased expense, and consequently the bulk of the 8 per cent. mortgages will continue in the ordinary way and under their ordinary amortization; nor is it probable that the amortizing fund at the disposal of the Bank will be much in excess of what it is at present. Cedulas can only be amortized every three months and parties who want to cancel the mortgage on their properties, and cannot buy cedulas in the market, unless at a premium of 10 per cent., will have to pay the amount of the mortgage at par into the Bank and lose the interest on the money until the drawing takes place. It is obvious, therefore, that this 8 per cent. stock will not be amortized by the Bank in any much larger proportion than the present, which, for parties holding large amounts of cedulas as investments, is most important, since a few cedulas of 400 patacons each, amortized at par every quarter, will scarcely affect the value of the stock as an 8 per cent. investment.

National Bank Shares, we are informed by parties who know the business going on in the Bank, will henceforward pay a 10 per cent gold dividend per annum, which, of course, makes the shares worth a premium, and it stands to reason that if this Bank, now in the beginning of its successful career, pays 10 per cent., as its business developes with the industry of the country it will soon pay 20 per cent., since there can be no doubt but that the National Bank, with a little more capital at its disposal, could do double its present business. The shares of the River Plate Bank are at 40 per cent. premium, and those of the Italian Bank at 20 per cent. premium, yet neither of these banks have the same protection from the National Government that the National Bank enjoys.

Much stress has been laid upon the rate at which the National Government negotiated its Railway Loan in this market, namely, at 82, which, for 6 per cent. bonds, is now cousidered by a crowd of wiseacres, to have been far too cheap; we may remind them, however, that but nine years ago the United States 6 per cent. bonds were selling in the London market at 73, which is 9 per cent. under the price of our 6 per cent. bonds now sold to European bankers in the River Plate. The United States 4 per cent. bonds are now selling in London at 117, and we have very little doubt that within three years from now the 4 per cent. bonds which the National and Provincial Governments are about to pay to the Provincial Bank, to consolidate their debt, will follow in the footsteps of the United States, and be selling in London at par or 'tal vez' at a decent premium. The days, we suspect, are passed when people in London or in Paris will prefer Unified Egyptians or Deferred Turks to Argentine Sixes, or even our famed Hard Dollars. The experience has cost both markets millions, yet it is cheap at the cost.

CATTLE-FARMING.

Few can form an idea of the great increase in cattle-breeding during the last two years. Estancias are silently spreading out on all sides, especially in the South, where a wave of progress has been wafted by scores of capitalists, who now view the country more from the prolific yield of animals than the quotations on the Bolsa. Few years will pass when the rodeos will stretch to the banks of the Rio Negro and to the foot of the Andes: the cattle of the province will be driven along the road, paved with the bones of animals over which the Indians used to drive to Chile troops of fat 'novillos': in this profitable traffic the thin animals succumbed on the road, and their palæontological remains testify the magnitude of the depredations on our frontier estancias. Times have changed, and soon 'bonafide' herds will graze in peace as they silently tread on their aboriginal ancestors, whose bones eloquently point to the aboriginal state of affairs in the Province of Buenos Ayres.

The prices at present paid for cattle are unprecedented, and many wonder at their ready acceptance, leaving out of account that cattle are cheap at $300 and even $400 m|c, when they can stock camps at $75,000 m|c per league. The B. Ayres market has seen the last of what was formerly considered cheap cattle, and soon the cheap prices for lands will follow in the wake, and we will look back with wonder at rates on the Rio Negro Loan principle. Everything in the country is growing, and above all the cattle-business, as can be proved by a few figures.

The best barometer of the increasing importance of cattlefarming consists in the value of blood-animals sold for breeding purposes. If we look back as late as 1876, the reader will not fail to see that breeding was in its infancy and only in the hands of a few who could risk and afford to lose several thousand head of cattle by Indian depradations and epidemics, arising from overstocked camps. At that period, nevertheless, the business yielded great profits, but it was mainly in the hands of wealthy capitalists. The Rio Negro expedition and the final disappearance of the Indian allowed small capitalists to enter the field, and we witness the first great stride towards the development and improvement of cattle breeding. The increase in the business during 1880 has been still more important than that which ensued in 1878 as the expedition to the Rio Negro was successfully carried out. The following figures will easily corroborate our remarks on the value of prize-stock sold during the last five years—

1877.....	3,668,903
1878.....	8,268,334
1879.....	10,517,580
1880.....	18,605,857

The increase of 1880 is superior to that of every other previous year, in spite of revolution and its consequences: we may look to still more important improvement at the end of 1881, and we hope that by that time the new Office of Statistics will be duly installed and will publish the necessary figures.

THE 'TRIBUNA NACIONAL'

Concordia, 4th June.
To the Editor of the Standard.
Dear Sir
If you will allow me space to make a few remarks on an article headed 'Graves denuncias,' which appeared in the Tribuna Nacional of 1st inst., I shall be much obliged to you. I only notice the article because the statements of the Tribuna, as the reputed organ of Government, carry with them a certain weight and, in this instance, are calculated to injure the interests of this Company.
The first statement is that the receipts are diminishing while the expenses are increasing. How is this to be reconciled with the published reports and accounts of the Company? or with the statistics derived from official sources, given in the Republica of 23d Sept. last year, to all of which sources of information, I presume the Editor of the Tribuna has access?
To save the trouble of reference I give the figures here:—

	Receipts	Expenses	Profit	Loss
1877.....	£ 16,743	25,714	—	8,971
1878.....	17,993	23,926	—	4,833
1879.....	25,773	24,571	1,202	—
1880.....	35,308	26,847	8,461	—

The second accusation is that the Company has provided a steamer, the Mensagero, to run in connection with the railway, and has established through rates and fares to Brazilian ports. That is quite true. It has been done on sound principles of management, to facilitate travelling and to stimulate the Brazilian traffic. Nearly every railway in England runs its own boats in connection with the Irish and Continental traffic, and as a matter of course protects its own interests. The Mensagero was sent out in answer to my repeated representations of the inadequacy of the old service. Before she arrived there were 3 or 4 small boats carrying from 20 to 40 tons. They took 14 hours on an average to do the journey from Monte Caseros to Uruguayana, a distance of 60 miles. Under adverse circumstances they occupied two or three days. Last month, when the river was very low, the Estela, the best of these boats, took 4 days to come from Uruguayana to Monte Caseros, while the Mensagero was doing her regular trips in 4½ to 8½ hours. The rates and fares were exorbitant, and no arguments I could use would induce the owners to lower them. Thus it happened that when a flood occurred such as we have within the last month, large steamers ran through from Montevideo to Uruguayana, depriving this line of its best traffic. It is different now, with through means of communication under my control, I can compete with the large steamers and carry at such rates as they do not care for. The merchants of Uruguayana never had so safe, cheap and rapid a service before, and the great majority appreciate it. The ill feeling towards the Mensagero, and the false reports circulated regarding the management of this line,are due to the opposition which every new enterprize that interferes ever so slightly with vested rights is sure to evoke, and also in a great measure to the narrow views of the Brazilians,who hate to see any flag but their own on the waters of the Upper Uruguay. It is almost incredible that a civilized people should exercise their ingenuity in devising means to exclude foreign commerce from their ports. The Argentine ports are as free to Brazilian vessels as they are to Argentine, and both pay the same dues, which are very moderate, amounting on an average to pesos Bolv. 7 per trip, including agency. The Argentine Government also grants packet privileges to all on the same terms. The Brazilians, on the other hand, refuse packet privileges to all vessels that do not carry the Brazilian flag, and the port charges are excessive. The same steamer that pays $B.7 in an Argentine port pays on an average $B.32 at Uruguayana. In this sum is included 40,000 reis for light dues, the nearest Brazilian lighthouse being, I suppose, at Rio Grande! A Brazilian vessel can load and unload at any hour of the day; the unfortunate foreigner is only allowed from 10 till 2, unless by favor. These grievances, however, are trifles compared to the rule which compels every steamer or other vessel touching at Uruguayana with cargo for other ports to discharge the whole and pay duty on it, whether its destination be Brazilian or Argentine. Thus, when the Mensagero takes cargo for Uruguayana, Alvear and Itaqui,as often happens, she has to go to Libres and discharge her Argentine cargo; duty is paid on the whole, and the Itaqui cargo is then re-embarked; she returns to Libres and takes the Alvear cargo on board, and proceeds on her journey. It is only proper to say that Brazilian vessels are subject to the same rule.

This is a digression for which I have to apologize. To return to the article in the Tribuna and the popular belief that I am the proprietor of the Mensagero, I refer the Editor for information to Mr Thompson, the resident Director of the Company in B. Aires.

As to the quantity of goods stated to have gone by the Oriental route instead of the Argentine, it is absurdly exaggerated. For 2000 tons read 2000 bultos,many of these being boxes of fideos, rolls of wire etc., amounting at the very outside to 200 tons. Much of this cargo was returned to Concordia and sent by this line, because it was found impossible to get it forwarded beyond the last station of the Salto line, Tacui, and I have it on the very best authority, the authority of the merchants themselves, that their merchandize by the Oriental route cost them 30 pats gold per ton, when it arrived in Uruguayana after a delay of 2 months, while it would have been delivered by this route in seven days from Montevideo for less than half the money. In conclusion I beg to thank the Editor of the Tribuna Nacional for the opportunity he has afforded me of replying to the attack of his friend.

THE OPERA HOUSE.

The Italian Dramatic Company gave their farewell performance on Monday to a tolerably well-filled house. The piece selected was Sardou's well-known and most attractive three-act comedy, entitled 'Dora,' Boccomini taking as usual the principal 'role.' I need not repeat that the public are only just commencing to appreciate that incomparable artist; in fact, the performance was charming from beginning to end, and every artist seemed determined to leave behind the most agreeable 'souvenirs' of the most intellectual entertainment which, I may say, has ever been witnessed in this country.

Indeed, I am at a loss to understand why such a notable company should have been so little appreciated by the 'elite' of Buenos Aires. Why they should have frequently played to empty houses, and why, eventually, they should be driven to perform in the provinces? It speaks volumes for their want of good taste. It is to be hoped they will meet with the success they are entitled to wherever they may go, and that the public of Buenos Aires will accord them a warmer reception if ever they have the pleasure of seeing them again.

May every step that La Boccomini takes in her rambles through the world be strewn with flowers, is the wish of many besides that of

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The pessimists feel personally injured at the abrupt conclusion of the Chilian difficulty, and additionally so by the news that now there is to be no arbitration at all, Nature and the American Ministers having arranged everything. This will raise both republics still higher in the estimation of the nations of the world. It is a dignified course to refer a dispute to a third party for settlement, but a still more dignified, independent and self-reliant one for those interested to settle it themselves. We really cannot see even a ray of hope for gold bulls, pessimists, croakers, &c. The last cloud on the horizon is gone.

The French mail steamer Congo sails to-day. Mail bags close at 1 o'clock p.m.

'Order reigns in Warsaw' was the news from Montevideo yesterday, but many entertain doubts as to its reigning very long. Colonel Santos has gone to 'recorrer los Departamentos' with a few troops.

The new Bolivian Minister, Sr. Omiste, presented his credentials to President Roca on Monday. There were a great many civil and military big wigs present. The new Minister's speech was the soul of wit, in other words, brief. President Roca's reply was full of friendly feeling for Bolivia. Neither said anything about the improving prospects of a large trade between the two countries.

There seems to be a 'deeper deep' of despond still in store for poor Peru. Prado, who so prudently moved on to make room for Pierola, is now said to be about to enter Peru from Ecuador with large war supplies: the Calderon Government is at Lima: the former Congress is somewhere else; Pierola is prowling about, the Chilians are masters of the best bits of the country, and if Peru does not finally succumb to all these elements for her ruin, she must have a stiffer backbone than even the most sanguine of her friends can suppose.

Whoever wants to buy the most superb plants, from every clime under the sun, should attend the auction sale by Messrs. Bulrich, to-day, of Monsieur Hamonet's unrivalled collection. Plants that would cost guineas in London or Paris will probably go for a song, and Tamagno, if he is wise, will attend the sale and buy up half the collection for a couple of those 'chest do's' he shouts so well. Seldom is such an opportunity afforded the public of buying such choice plants very cheap.

We deeply regret to announce that a telegram came yesterday from England announcing the death of Mr Robert Gibson, of the firm of Gibson Brothers, a gentleman who resided many years in this country and was held in the highest esteem and regard by all who knew him, for his nobleness of character and preeminent good qualities in all relations of life. We deeply sympathise with his family on the loss of so good a man. His brother, Mr Thomas Gibson, who went home in the Douro, must have been in time to take a last farewell of him.

We hope sincerely that the news given by the Nacion that the Provincial Government intends to abandon the idea, in its contemplated reform of the administration of justice, of establishing Trial by Jury, is not well founded. We will never have a proper system of criminal justice till it is established. We cannot at all agree with our colleague that men honest and impartial enough to understand and faithfully fulfill the duties of Jurymen are not to be found in the country, and trust that no such depreciatory view of his countrymen will influence Governor Rocha in the matter. Besides, this is a case in which foreigners could fairly be asked to lend their assistance to the State, and their greater experience in the matter would soon give the only fair system of trial in criminal cases a firm root in their adopted soil.

There will be a terrific crush tonight at the Colon Theatre to see our old operatic friend Robert the Devil. We hear there are very few seats left.

All the available land at Chuput being now in the hands of the present settlers, the Minister of the Interior has ordered the survey of a new territor yon the river Leugel, so that all new arrivals from Wales can settle down near their countrymen. This will be Welsh Colouy Number Two in the Argentine Republic, a very significant and satisfactory fact. A steady current of Welsh emigration has now set in to this country, and is certain to assume very large proportions before many years are about.

A very attractive feature will be added to the National fetes on the 9th July by the presence of 200 picked men from the crews of the National squadron.

The river pilots have made a most useful proposal to the National Government, viz., to draw up charts of the rivers Parana, Uruguay and estuary of the Plate, with all the banks, rocks, shoals, &c., and also the safest channels. When the work is done they offer to leave the decision of the amount of their remuneration to experts in the matter. A very fair and sailor-like proposal.

Messrs Lacrosse's 'solicitud' to the Provincial Government setting forth the advantages of their proposed tramway to Tandil makes out a splendid case in its favour. They should certainly get their guarantee, as the province will, most probably, never be called on to pay a dollar of it.

The Bill for a railway from San Nicolas to Junin was laid before the Provincial Chamber of Deputies yesterday and sent to the Public Works Committee to report on. The Bill leaving the Boundary Question between this province, Cordoba and Santa Fe to the arbitration of the Supreme Court was finally passed. The Public Works Committee reported favourably on the extension of the Western Railway from Pergamino to Rosario; and a vote of 25,000 m|c was passed for Mrs Acosta, widow of the station master at Plaza Once, who was shot in the political scuffle of last June.

Gemma Cuniberti, the child Ristori, Esmeralda Cervantes, the Spanish harpist, and several military bands, will all perform to-night at the Politeama for the benefit of the 'Invalidos.' We truly hope that the old fellows will have a bumper; but it is not by any means 'the thing' to see the country's heroes driven to fall back on the efforts of juvenile journalists and public charity to provide them with even the necessaries of life. It is a shame for the country. These maimed veterans should have a 'Chelsea' for a home, with every comfort, where each one of them could 'shoulder his crutch and show how fields are won.' As we are going in for so many new and splendid buildings in the Capital of the Nation, we emphatically suggest that one of the best amongst them should be a Retreat—No! the Argentine soldier does not understand that word—but a palatial Home for the 'Invalidos Argentinos.'

The Captain-General of Ports has issued an interesting sheet setting forth the foreign National anniversaries which the Argentine Republic delights to honour. There are 27 of them, to wit—The birthday of Washington and four Emperors, one Queen (Victoria), eight Kings, eleven Independence Days, one Swearing of Constitution, and one Peace and Prosperity Day (Switzerland) We don't see King Tommy-Hommy-Haw, King Coffee, or King Theebaw amongst them, but that's excusable. November is the only month that has not an Imperial, Royal, or Independence Day in it. Unhappy month.

There was a flood at the Boca on Monday owing to the high tide and east wind. The water reached the tramway rails in the Plaza.

How things are striding ahead in the agricultural line in this country may be estimated from the fact that, within the last two months, over ONE THOUSAND lots of new farm land have been sold at full prices to agricultural families in Santa Fe. Every day the demand for farming land increases in that province. The wheat crop next year must be a stupendous one, with land being taken up at this rate.

Patacones	27.25
Cedulas A	99½
National Bank Shares	96½
National Bonds 1863,	99

The news from the West Coast of the settlement of the Chilian question without arbitration was the sole topic on 'Change. Such unlooked for good news spread sunshine over the Bolsa. Gold opened and held throughout the day at 27.25, but it rules weak and looks as if on the eve of a new departure; sales for the end of the year at 26.40, and for July at 26.90.

Cedulas again advanced and were done at the ring at 99½, but one sale of 2,000 was made after hours at Par, being the first sale on record of this stock at that price. Money is so abundant that holders of the stock consider prices will advance to 10 premium, when large amounts next month will, as is always the case in this market in the winter season, be seeking temporary employment.

National Bank Shares already begin to show the signs of a sharp corner; people sold the stock last month a trifle too fast, and thousands of shares have yet to be bought back to close contracts for the 30th. Meanwhile new buyers are entering the market, and one holder has sold out 3,000 shares 'efectivo' scarcely a share of which has reached the Bolsa, the stock looks sure for par before the dividend.

The news from the West Coast this morning is so favorable for this country that it is not be wondered that it should have the most beneficial effect on the market. The long pending Chilian question is at last to be settled, and on the firmest of all bases, natural boundaries, without even the aid of arbitration. The Andes to be the dividing line between both countries down to Cape Horn, and the mouth of the Straits up to point Dungeness, which is inside the Atlantic mouth of the Straits, to be the Argentine dividing line. Nature and the American Minister seem to have settled this long pending question for us better than if we had called on some of the European Powers to arbitrate, and we congratulate the Argentine Government on its singular good luck in thus ridding us of the sole speck on the Argentine horizon.

Lovers of good live stock ought to step in at Baltar & Quesada's and inspect the splendid animals there imported by Messrs Getting, Nash, and Conde; nothing can more plainly prove the splendid march of this country than this constant stream of live stock from Europe to our shores. In a few years we shall have our rodeos of horned cattle so much improved that the wealth of the country will be positively doubled.

The Junin Railway is the talk of the whole market; no scheme could be more popular, as it will bring us up with the splendid Lincoln, Venado Tuerto, and Italo camps. We hope to see the matter pushed through the Chambers without delay, as the moment could not be more favorable to form the company and begin the works.

The sales at the ring were—

Gold at after hours ruled shaky; some 250,000 pats sold for 27.15, it is supposed by the Government, made everything very weak, and although there was not to say a large business done at after hours; the market closed sellers at 27.20 for cash and end of month.

In Cedulas 50,000 bought for to-morrow at 99½, 100,000 for end of month at 99, and 50,000 for end of July at 98⅝.

In Nat. Bank Shares a very active business doing; 800 sold for end of month at 96½, then 500 for same date at 97, afterwards many other sales were effected, and the market closed very firm at 96⅝ buyers for end of month, and at 97½ buyers for end of July.

Mr Lix Klett, the well-known barraquero and wool buyer, took leave of his friends on 'Change, he sails to-morrow in the Congo for Europe. We all hope to see him back again shortly coming out with large orders for our new clip. Mr Lix Klett has just rented with his brother a large farm on the Southern R.R. estacion Pardo, for the purpose of sowing some 600 squares of flax and sesame; we have few more enterprizing men amongst us than this well-known artista.

It was announced on 'Change that telegrams received from London give Hard Dollars at 92, which of course is excoupon and carries them over par here.

There is nothing yet concluded about the sale of the Curamalan lands, but we believe soon the business will be concluded.

In the Plazas very little done this morning owing to the bad weather and small arrivals; everyone is talking of the splendid lambing season; on one estancia out of 11,000 ovejas 'de vientre' they have already marked 8000, and the lambs are strong and hardy; on another estancia, 3000 sheep, they marked 2000 lambs.

Exchange ruled weak in the morning, and some drawers asked 4⅜ and 5.17, but there are no takers at such rates. STATE OF IRELAND.

THE LAND BILL

Dublin, April 28th

The Roman Catholic Hierarchy have drawn up the following declaration on the Land Bill and forwarded a copy to the Premier—'We, the Archbishops and Bishops of Ireland, having individually and in general meeting given to the Government Land Bill now before Parliament our most careful consideration, deem it our duty to declare that, while we recognize in its leading principles an honest and statesmanlike purpose of settling on a solid and equitable basis the relations of landlord and tenant in Ireland, we are convinced that to effect a permanent and satisfactory settlement of the land question the following alterations in the details of the Bill are necessary:—1 That perpetuity of tenure should be granted not alone to all 'present tenants,' as in the Bill, but to future tenants also. 2 That tenants holding under leases made since the passing of the Land Act of 1870 should have the right to submit them for revision to the Court, both as to amount of rent and other conditions. 3 That the holders of existing leases should, on the expiration of such leases, become entitled to the protection given by the Bill to present tenants. We are convinced that without the above amendments the Act will not give tenants that sense of security which of all conditions is the most necessary, not only for the peace and contentment, but for the agricultural improvement and general prosperity of the country. Without security of tenure the tenant will give neither labour nor capital to the soil; he will remain poor and discontented. On the other hand, a secure tenure, with the other helps provided in the Bill, will develop industry and enterprise, supply lucrative and healthful employment to the youth of Ireland generally, as well as to the labouring classes, and will distribute over the country the population now so inconveniently crowded in the poorest and most resourceless portions of the island. 4 That the protection granted by the Bill should not be withheld from the tenants now owing arrears of rent—a very numerous class—but that the Court should be empowered to adjudicate on all such cases of arrears with a view to their equitable adjustment, in accordance with the principles of this Bill; and, further, to stay proceedings in evictions for non-payment of rent on such terms as under the circumstances of each case shall seem proper to the Court. 5 That during the statutory term of the tenancy the power of a landlord to resume possession under the authority of the Court should be strictly limited to cases of public necessity or utility. 6 That whenever the landlord demands an increase of rent which is refused by the tenant the burden of proving that the present rent is not a fair one should be cast upon the landlord. 7. That the right of fining down rent on terms approved by the Court should be granted, if not to all tenants, at least to those holding from corporate bodies or from absentee landlords. 8. That the grounds set forth in the Bill on which a landlord may refuse to admit as tenant the purchaser of a holding, as well as the right of pre-emption conferred on the landlord, interfere seriously with the tenant's right of free sale. 9. That we consider it to be harsh and inequitable that the mere vesting of a holding in a judgment creditor of the tenant (which may occur without any fault of the tenant beyond the incurring of a debt) should be deemed a breach of the statutory conditions exposing the tenant to the loss of his holding. 10. That in case of eviction, from whatever cause, the same time should be allowed the tenant for the sale of his tenaancy as the Bill allows when eviction occurs for non-payment of rent. 11. That tenants of large holdings should have the right, within limits to be approved by the Court, to sell or transfer part of such holdings while retaining the remainder in their own possession; also to bequeath such holdings in parts to more than one member of their family or to such others as they may select, and that in cases of intestacy a sale of the holding should not be obligatory if the Court deem it better that there should be no sale. We are convinced that the subdivision of extensive holdings within reasonable limits, instead of impeding, largely promotes the permanent improvement of land and the general industry of the country; and we could not but regard as unjust any provision of the Act which would, without necessity, prevent parents from discharging their natural obligatioas towards their children. 12. That the advance from the Treasury for purchasing land and fining down perpetuity rents should be more liberal, and that the period of repayment of such loans should be extended to 52 years. 13. That, considering the extensive and increasing demand for labour which fixity of tenure, fair rents, the subdivision of large farms, and the reclamation of waste lands are sure to create in Ireland, we cannot but regard emigration, and every Government scheme, however well intended that would encourage it, as highly detrimental to Irish interests. 14. That advances from the Treasury for reclamation, drainage and other agricultural improvements of their farms should be made directly to the tenants themselves. 15. That a comprehensive scheme for the purchase, reclamation and partition of waste land in Ireland, as well as for arterial drainage, should be added to the Land Bill, and such scheme should be carried out by the Govnt. itself. 16. That no settlement of the land question can be deemed satisfactory or complete without an adequate provision being made therein for the improvement of the condition of our agricultural labourers. 17. That the final decision of land cases, with all the other powers vested by the Bill in the Land Commission, should not be given to a single commissioner, much less to an assistant commissioner. 18. That with a view to conciliate public confidence in the County Courts as Land Courts, and to secure the equitable administration of the Act, two assessors to be chosen by county electors should be associated with the County Court Judge, and have co-ordinate jurisdiction with him for the decision of land cases. We need not add that in common with the whole tenant class of Ireland, we believe that the value of the Act, and of the amendments we recommend will very largely, if not entirely, depend on the selection of the commissioners, and on the establishment of suitable and permanent rules for the discharge of their duties—Daniel M'Gettigan, Archbishop of Armagh, chairman; H J Edward M'Cabe, Archbishop of Dublin; Thomas W Croke, Arch bishop of Cashel; John M'Evilly, Coadjutor Archbishop of Tuam; William Delany, Bishop of Cork; Francis Kelly, Bishop of Derry; J P Leahy, Bishop of Dromore; J Walshe, Bishop of Kildare and Leighlin; Lawrence Gillooly, Bishop of Elphin; Michael Flannery, Bishop of Killaloe; Patrick Dorrian, Bishop of Down and Connor; George Butler, Bishop of Limerick; Nicholas Conaty, Bishop of Kilmore; Thomas Nulty, Bishop of Meath; J Donnelly, Bishop of Clogher; James Lynch, Coadjutor Bishop of Kildare; Patrick Duggan, Bishop of Clonfert; Hugh Conway, Bishop of Killala; F J M'Cormack, Bishop of Achonry James Ryan, Coadjutor Bishop of Killaloe; Patrick F Moran, Bishop of Ossory; John Power, Bishop of Waterford and Lismore; John Mac Carthy, Bishop of Cloyne; Michael Warren, Bishop of Ferns; William Fitzgerald, Bishop of Ross; Daniel M'Carthy, Bishop of Kerry; Bartholomew Woodlock, Bishop of Ardagh; Michael Logue, Bishop of Raphoe. Dublin April 24, 1881.'

The demands put forward by the prelates, especially as regards the constitution of the Court, have excited the astonishment of Roman Catholic lawyers and others interested in maintaining the rights of property. The manifesto is substantially an endorsement of the report adopted at the recent conference of the Land League. It is warmly approved by the advocates of the tenants, although it is thought hardly probable that the proposals to elect Land League assessors to administer the law will be sanctioned by the Legislature, and the first step taken towards the establishment of the American mode of making judicial appointments by popular vote.
